Recruitment Drive will ensure that each candidate is assessed only in accordance with the candidate's merits, qualification and ability to perform the relevant duties required by the particular vacancy.
- 1.3 Recruitment Drive will not accept instructions from Clients that indicate an intention to discriminate unlawfully.

2. SEX AND RACE DISCRIMINATION

Unlawful sex or race discrimination occurs in the following circumstances:

2.1 Direct Discrimination

Under the Sex Discrimination Act 1975 and the Race Relations Act 1976 direct discrimination occurs where one individual treats another individual less favourably on grounds of their sex, colour, race, nationality, ethnic or national origins:

- a) In the terms on which the Recruitment consultancy offers to provide any of its Services;
- b) By refusing or omitting to provide any of its services;
- c) In the way it provides any of its services.

Direct discrimination would also occur if a recruitment consultancy accepted and acted upon a job registration from an employer which states that certain persons are unacceptable because of their sex, colour, race, nationality, or ethnic or national origins, unless one of the exceptions applies.

2.2 Indirect Discrimination

- a) A claim of indirect discrimination arises when an employer applies a requirement or condition generally, but which is such that proportion of persons from one racial group who can comply with it is considerably smaller than the proportion of persons not of that racial group who can comply with it.

3. DISABILITY DISCRIMINATION

3.1 Under the Disability Discrimination Act 1985, disability discrimination occurs if for a reason which relates to the disabled person's disability an individual:

- a) Treats him less favourably than he treats, or would treat others to whom that reason does not or would not apply.
- b) The employer cannot show that the treatment in question is justified.

3.2 Recruitment Drive will not discriminate against a disabled job applicant or employee on the grounds of disability:

- In the arrangements i.e. application form, interview and arrangements for selection for determining to whom a job should be offered; or
- In the terms on which employment or engagement of temporary workers is offered; or
- By refusing to offer, or deliberately not offering the disabled person a job for reasons connected with their disability; or
- In the opportunities afforded to the person for receiving any benefit, or by refusing to afford, or deliberately not affording him or her any such opportunity: or
- By subjecting him or her to any other detriment (detriment will include refusal of training, transfer, demotion, reduction of wage; or harassment).

3.3 Wherever possible Recruitment Drive will accordingly make career opportunities available to all people with disabilities and every practical effort will be made to provide for the needs of staff, Candidates and Clients.
